Panhellenic — IFC Rush . . .

Begins the story . . .

The story of many episodes . . .

For some four hundred young men and women, their college story began with a whirl of new acquaintances, with tireless smiles, with nametags, and with smokers. But best of all, it began with a new bond—a spirit of brotherhood or sisterhood. And so pledgeship was a bright beginning for the first episode of an ETSU college story.

And the story changes . . .

and moves with the masses

So the time began for moving . . .

After the chaos of registration had ended, those first fall evenings at State passed with a street dance or a concert in the Amphitheater. The "Okaysions" and the "Funky Soul" performed as ETSU students rocked into another moving episode of their college story.

And growing to new heights

Realizing the need and stepping out . . .

To become a part . . .

Alpha Delta Pi

Linus covered ADPi Homecoming honors
 . . . The clasped hands of friendship . . .
 A keg for Diamond Day . . .
 Diamonds are a girl's best friend
 . . . Pi, Pi ADPi . . . A penny to wish for ADPi . . . we conquered the summit of Pikes Peak . . . Raindrops on violets and whiskers on lions . . .
 Bridging the generation gap at Appalachian Christian Village . . .
 We cross our fingers

Alpha Omicron Pi

I'm in love with a Big Blue Frog . . .
 March of Fashions for March of Dimes
 . . . The wearers of red and white rushing from candyland to Paris . . .
 Pikes Peak Chocolate Pies . . . Who won that raffle? . . . Now I know why I pledged AOPi . . . What's a party without brownies . . . Love those red, red roses . . . A pin of rubies and pearls for AOPi Girls . . . Loyal forever Alpha to thee.

Atlanta Falcons train at ETSU

The Atlanta Falcons call ETSU their summer home. They held their second consecutive summer training camp here in 1968 and they seem to like the Tennessee climate, since they plan to return for at least three more summers. ETSU is proud to be the home away from home for the Atlanta Falcons.

Cheerleaders —

A time for Go-Power

A time to prepare . . .

Find a scaffold . . . how much is chicken wire a foot . . . the construction company can't build it . . . Four endless days preceding Homecoming displayed sweatshirts, jeans, cold hands, and hot chocolate. It was a race against a deadline; it was competition; it was winning a trophy; but most of all, it was making ETSU a part of each of us.

A time to entertain . . .

And there came a time for relaxation as Paul Anka and Chuck Jackson performed a dual concert in Memorial Gym. The announcement of display winners brought the spotlight to Alpha Xi Delta and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.

To supplement the color of Homecoming, pep rallies, cheers and skits kindled the fire of enthusiasm. Alpha Delta Pi and Lambda Chi Alpha captured first place trophies for original skits, while Kappa Delta and Sigma Phi Epsilon stirred the air with exuberant top honor cheers.

It was a rambunctious field day at ETSU. Alumni, collegiates, and professors gathered and vivaciously declared their enthusiasm. Luncheons, receptions, and dances were climaxed as the Tennessee Tech Eagles bowed to the mighty Buccaneers—a truly appropriate closing for a truly spectacular Homecoming!

a time of achievement . . .

The Presidential Inauguration

The inauguration of Dr. Delos Poe Culp as fourth president of East Tennessee State University became the first presidential installation in the history of this school. Among the visiting educators and honored dignitaries, Tennessee Governor Buford Ellington delivered the principal address. State Commissioner of Education, J. Howard Warf performed the inaugural ceremonies which included the presentation of the new flag of the university and the presidential mace and medallion.

Agony and ecstasy . . .

Among the Miss Pike's Peak contestants (below), Susan Kilgore, Kappa Delta; Donna Mayo, Delta Zeta; Bobbie Hicks, Sigma Kappa; Karen Reed, Alpha Delta Pi; Sherry Cooper, Alpha Xi Delta; Diana Crisp, Alpha Omicron Pi; the title was won by Karen Reed (right).

Broken eggs, tricycles, and chocolate pies complimented by skits, dances, and beauty entrants brought Pi Kappa Alpha's Pike's Peak once again to State's sorority women. 1968 found Alpha Delta Pi a first place winner, while Alpha Omicron Pi and Delta Zeta took second and third trophies. And so another year of screaming, of sore throats, and of keen competition ended.

Miss Buccaneer 1969 . . .

And the suspense mounted as the ten became five: Carol Holt, Renee Lindsey, Karen Reed, Kathy Olterman, and Holly Tomlinson.

The cinderella of our story . . .

Carol Ann Holt (center) vibrantly accepted the trophy as first runner-up.

Tearful and radiant Kathy Olterman became the 1969 Miss Buccaneer.

The Ballroom echoed with strains of "Can't Take My Eyes Off You" as twenty-five lovely coeds paraded for the annual Miss Buccaneer Pageant. Pogie Draughn served as master of ceremonies for the evening. The suspense of elimination was broken by moments of amusement when Ethel Smidley demonstrated how-not-to-win a beauty contest. The crown, the roses, and an elated Kathy brought a fairy tale wish to a reality.

Fall brought entertainment . . .

Performance and entertainment were characteristic of Fall Quarter. We reminisced to the sounds of "Anthony and the Imperials," and we were amused with their antics. "A Night in Old Italy" found a romantic evening at our access. The candles flickered from the folk melodies of the "Crowchee."

And the color of fashions . . .

Sigma Kappa's annual "Best Dressed on Campus" found fashion trends from culotte dresses to alpaca sweaters. Entrants from seventeen organizations on campus were judged in sportswear and evening attire. The closing moments found Ginger Fink of Delta Zeta and Duke Ingram of Sigma Alpha Epsilon the best dressed man and woman on ETSU's campus.

As its local philanthropic project, Alpha Omicron Pi sorority sponsored a "March of Fashions" for the benefit of the Washington County Chapter of the March of Dimes. Janice Sproles, first runner-up in the Miss Tennessee Pageant, enchanted the audience with her vocal entertainment.

Patchwork presents

Patchwork Players, of East Tennessee State's drama department, presented "My Three Angels." Their first production of the year was written by Sam and Bella Spewack.

Characters Within the Story . . .

Patchwork Players once again displayed their talents and abilities in the dramas, "The Birthday Party", and "Spoon River Anthology". Thus these young men and women became characters within themselves through involvement in their own college story.

Caroling, Concerts, Customs . . .

Christmas highlights every college year; it is an entertaining episode to every college story which provides an opportunity for ETSU's talented to perform. This year found an emphasis on music. The Chorale Union presented their annual Christmas oratorio in conjunction with the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra. Next on the school calendar came an evening of folk, rock, and jazz entertainment by the "Oxford Collection", John Herron, and Juanita Simerly.

Christmas ETSU . . .

In traditional array, the B. Carroll Reese Museum was decorated with trees representing international countries and customs. The University Center gave students a white Christmas through its lovely window decorations.

Swift*

Harley "Skeeter" Swift, 6' 3" Senior from Alexandria, Virginia, has been the ALL OVC GUARD for the previous two years and is considered to be the No. 1 player in the conference. Among his accomplishments have been scoring an average of 21 points per game; leading the team to 7.3 assists per game; and remaining the top rebounding guard with a 6.1 average. It is obvious that Harley has the potential for a future in professional ball. In reference to his ability, his teammates and classmates call him "Skeeter, who ain't nothing but Swift!"

A time of harmony . . .

(Below) Kappa Alpha won a second place trophy in small group fraternity competition. (Bottom left) AOPi's found a third award in women's small group singing.

To the Greeks at ETSU, ALL SING constituted a frenzy of activities. From selection of music to the onstage performance, time and preparation became the password. For the participants an isolation began. It was the isolation of an increased bond of fraternal spirit through long hours of rehearsals; or the isolation that taught the virtues of tolerance and patience when costumes did not arrive, or when eighty girls had to wait in a conference room before performing. For some, jubilation; for others, relief; yet ALL SING became another facet which made ETSU more a part of us.

Harmony of music . . .

Winter pauses only to begin . . .

(Left) The community as well as the campus audience delighted to the music of Fred Waring who performed in Memorial Gym.

Winter often brings a dormancy; yet at State, winter brings just another opportunity for diversified activities. Whether it was the entertainment of a concert by acclaimed Fred Waring and the Pennsylvanians, or the pageantry of the ROTC Military Ball, we were always eager to participate and to enjoy.

The Time for Richard III

Patchwork Players reenacted Shakespeare's "Richard III" in Gilbreath Auditorium. The highlight of their dramatic season became a combined effort of stage and makeup crews and the efficient directing of Mr. George McAtee. Once again these talented young performers became characters in the story within a story.

And a time for a water spectacle . . .

"A Kaleidoscope of Colors" was the theme for the Aquatic Club's annual water show. Presented in conjunction with the Physical Education department, this event found a display of hydro skill and precision.

The University Center . . .

Source of continuous entertainment

(Opposite page) The University Center Council sponsored The Imperfect Penny as an evening of rock and folk entertainment. The "Natchez Trace" were featured. (Top) The Bunny Club found its way to State during "LE CERCLE LAPIN". Talented Josh White and The Tempests were the attractions of that evening.

(Top) Pat Hauser displays the form he used in setting an ETSU record javelin throw. (Below) Buccaneer track stars react to those famous words of "on the clock" of Coach Dave Walker.

Buccaneer's 1968 track season was highlighted by a News-Piedmont Relay University Division championship. The Bucs later went on to place second team in the TIAC meet. Playing host to all OVC track teams, the Bucs ended fourth in OVC standings. Thus far in the 1969 season, the Big Blue Cindermen placed third at the VMI relay which hosted more than forty universities and colleges. As this section goes to press, ETSU stands a good chance of placing at least third in the OVC this year.

The Green Time of the Year . . .

(Left) Terry Morrison, senior, played steady for the last two years. He is a hard worker and averaged 73.5 last year. (Right) Tommy Mullinax, senior, is one of the longest hitters in college golf. During his junior year, Tommy averaged 73.5. He once shot an 18 hole score of 59.

Brings Golf to ETSU

Jim Finklea, freshman, has all the equipment to be a great golfer. He was the Darlington Firebird champ in 1968.

Tim Bubenchik, junior, made great improvements last year and is making much progress in the '69 season. Last year Tim averaged 72.8.

Mike Cation, junior, has performed steadily and should be very strong again. His last year's record shows an average of 73.8.

For Men Only . . .

ADPi Diamond Day

Spring found a grapefruit squeeze, a penny hold, and an exhibition of rare talents; those talents involved in competition during Alpha Delta Pi's Diamond Day. Fraternity men engaged in the frivolity of such events as quartet singing, tugs-of-war, and minutes of cracker eating. The surprise event found many baby bottles . . . Sigma Phi Epsilon coveted the traditional keg, while Pi Kappa Alpha and Kappa Alpha were awarded second and third place trophies.

Acknowledging the Leaders of Tomorrow . . .

Recognition became the command for Military Honors Day. To those men and women who have excelled in service to their school through the ROTC as well as Sponsor program it was a day of achievement and deserved honor.

Judge Harold C. Kessinger, renowned civic lecturer, delivered the annual Honors Day address to 450 ETSU students who had distinguished themselves in various campus activities during the 1967-68 academic year. The day brought a combination of recognition and inspiration to State's outstanding leaders. Indeed, it was a day of honoring the main characters of another college story.

Commencement 1968 . . .

a Day of Ending and Beginning . . .

With a symbolic lighting of the torch, commencement 1968 brought the closing of a gap to a new world. It brought the closing of a college way of living; the closing of the college story of experiences of learning with facts and with people. Commencement for some brought honor; for some, a companion; for many, service; but above all, it brought a key to progress and unlimited opportunity. Dr. Earle Hawkins delivered the final lecture and assignment—perhaps the most memorable—to approximately 700 graduates.

Governor Buford Ellington

The Foundation

Upon Which We Build . . .

Dr. Culp's enthusiasm for all phases of his position as president of East Tennessee State University leaves little time for quiet moments of reflection over those decisions, opportunities, obligations and pressures of the past year.

New situations will come; effort and energy will be expended. Dr. and Mrs. Culp will see their endeavors prosper, whether it be in community, campus, or family life.

The job, president of a growing university, never ceases to be demanding, no matter what the location or time of the day. There are people who live for such a challenge; Dr. D. P. Culp is one of them.

There's a lot better way of finding a career in the textiles / fibers field than this.

When your future's on the line, use your pen to better advantage than for circling through the classified sections.

Drop us a note instead and tell us why you think you would like to work for a $160,000,000 fiber and textile company that has grown 11% in the past year. And has plans to do a lot more growing with guys like you in key positions. In research. In engineering. In design. In merchandising. In sales. In areas both challenging and rewarding.

So if you want to leave your mark on the textiles/fibers world, write us first. It's a lot better way to do it than leaving your mark on the help wanted ads.

WHAT MAKES THE WORLD GO ROUND ?

I am the foundation of all business.

I am the source of all prosperity.

I am the parent genius.

I am the salt that gives life its savor.

I laid the foundation of every fortune.

I can do more work to advance youth than his own parents, be they ever so wealthy.

I must be loved before I can bestow the greatest blessing and achieve my greatest ends.

Loved, I make life sweet, purposeful, and fruitful

I am represented in the humblest savings, in the largest block of investments.

All progress springs from me.

I AM WORK

Dear Graduates:

Work is of necessity, a vital part of our everyday lives. We recommend that you work especially hard to complete your education and choose an occupation or a profession you like. This will enable you to render service to society as well as yourself.

Our Very Best Wishes to each of you for a Happy Productive Life.

Those were the days ... the days of change ... the seasons, the time ...
We sought and we found. We became a part and we grew.

Every day was an episode of that all-too-soon ending story. This story found each of us as main characters. We took a "sad song and made it better . . ."

—Lennon and McCartney

Through others, we found ourselves. We discovered ambitions; we made dreams; and we overcame obstacles. We found a goal . . . We realized all this by living and experiencing the ETSU college story.

As the final deadline is met, the yearbook editor has many mixed emotions. There is first of all relief, then excitement, anticipation, and a little apprehension. She pauses to reflect the year that has been recorded in this book.

This has been a year of change and growth, of turmoil and strife, of victory and defeat. Many diligent staff members have contributed their time and efforts to help collect these happenings, and they deserve many thanks. Special thanks goes to Kay Isaac, who did a great deal more than her office indicated. Also thank you to Mr. Don Carter for his patience and good advice, to Mr. Tom Daniel for his fine photography, and to Mr. Bob Mainord and Taylor Publishing Company for all their assistance.

Each year there is a story to be told. This story is time; the time is now; the place is ETSU; the characters are you. I hope each of you finds in this book some part of yourself. Without you there would have been no story, no dream, no fulfillment.
